PERSONAL.

MRS. WILLIAM BAUST and two children, who have been visiting relatives in California for the past two months, returned to Tonopah this morning.

GLACE and HELEN HUNTLEY, who since June have been outing in Oregon, passed through Tonopah today en route to their home in Goldfield.

DR. CLAUDE CHERCH, who has been on a professional visit in San Francisco, returned this morning.

WALTER ST. PIERRE, the shoe man, arrived from his Reno headquarters this morning. This is his first visit to Tonopah in two months. He says the people of Reno are talking Tonopah and Divide stocks and all predict a big revival in the near future.

C. E. DAVIS left for Los Angeles on today's train for the south.

L. V. GORDON, president of the Round Mountain Gold Mining company, departed on train No. 25 this morning for San Francisco.

A. DONALDSON left this morning for Los Angeles.

MRS. OMER MARIS, mother of Mrs. Frank Garside, who was operated upon at the Mine Operators' hospital, is reported in a critical condition.

MISS HELEN SMITH, stenographer in the auditor's office of the Tonopah Mining company, was a passenger today for San Francisco.

D. L. SAYRE, the veteran news paper man, left for Decatur, Cal., this morning, where he goes to recuperate his health.

JOHN CLIFFORD, who has been in Europe for the past several months, returned to Tonopah last evening.

AUGUST TILDEN, the Reno lawyer, was an arrival from that city this morning.

D. E. FAGENBUSH, after a 10 days' business visit in this city, returned to Oakland today.

A. A. BUCANNAN left this morning for San Francisco.

MISS ETHEL MOUGHTON, who has been bookkeeper at the St. Pierre shoe store for the past 18 months, left this morning for her home in Sanford, Florida.

MRS. ETHEL MILLER and son, Richard, were arrivals from Howder, Colorado, this morning. Mrs. Miller has accepted the position as bookkeeper at St. Pierre's shoe store and her son Richard becomes a clerk in the same establishment. The Millers were residents of Goldfield for several years.

REPORTS MUCH ACTIVITY.

ON BLIND SPRINGS HILL

Nathaniel Smith, a prosperous merchant at Benton, California, is spending a few days in Tonopah. Mr. Smith says that the many leasers on Blind Springs Hill are all extracting high-grade ore, and that the shipments are keeping many trucks busy hauling the ore to the railroad. He also reports much mining activity in the surrounding districts. Many prominent mining men have visited that section in the past month and several good deals are pending.

SOCIALISTS START RIOT IN TRIESTE

(By Associated Press.) TRIESTE, Friday, Sept. 10.—A socialist revolt, in which barricades were erected in the streets and artillery, rifles and machine guns frantically employed between the rioters and the military, broke out this afternoon. Italian troops succeeded in restoring order at 5 o'clock tonight. The fighting was very sharp while it lasted.

MAN O'WAR BREAKS RECORD

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Man O' War, champion 3-year-old, made another American track record today when he won the Jackie Club stakes at a mile and a half in 2 minutes 24 1/2 seconds.

Soldier of Fortune Fights for Poland

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—War dispatches making more than casual mention of Brigadier General Charles Sweeney have lent to the Polish struggle more than an impersonal interest to American army officers at Governors Island, who are well acquainted with Sweeney—an American soldier of fortune with both principle and purse.

Men of no fortune at all who fight in any old or young army for the sake of excitement and paltry pay are common enough. But Sweeney, U. S. A., is a notable exception. He is a multi-millionaire's son, his father having amassed great wealth in the famous Coeur d'Alene mines of Washington and Idaho, and the soldier is more than a millionaire in his own right.

He put in three years at West Point and then sought the life of an active soldier in Mexico, South and Central America and Europe, where he struck blows in desperate causes.

Sweeney, a former lieutenant colonel in the United States army, attached to the general staff, was in Paris during the spring of 1919, recovering from wounds suffered in the Argentine offensive when the American expeditionary forces when he learned that Poland was in need of officers for her new armies. He consulted with the then Premier, Paderewski, and offered to recruit volunteers when he returned to America to be mustered out of the service. In three weeks he had selected 200 former American army officers, all of whom had seen service.

Two other important decorations were bestowed upon him in rapid succession, and he had a great reputation for bravery. Soon after being made a captain in the French forces, he was sent to the United States upon advice of Ambassador Sharp, as an instructor, in 1917.

Sweeney was commissioned a major in the United States army and helped to train the Eightieth division at Camp Lee, Virginia. He went overseas with that division, got badly "shot up" in the Argonne and was promoted to a lieutenant colonel for gallantry before the enemy, and assigned to the general staff of the A. E. F.

TONOPAH GIRL WEDS IN SAN BERNARDINO

Miss Lavine Shields, formerly of Tonopah, and Charles Hunt, of San Bernardino, were married on September 2 in San Bernardino, where they will make their home. Mrs. Hunt's marriage was considerable of a surprise to her many friends in this state, as until about eight weeks ago, when she met Mr. Hunt, she had expected to return to the University of Nevada, this fall, where she would have been a senior.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Shields, had been residents of Tonopah for many years until last year, when they went to California for Mr. Shields' health. The bride is a niece of R. H. Dainell, chief deputy to the chief of police of Tonopah, and a cousin of Miss Margaret Hinds of Reno.

AMUSEMENTS

FATTY ARBUCKLE AND MAE MURRAY TODAY

The program at the Butler today will consist of one of Fatty Arbuckle's very best comedies, and Mae Murray, in a five-ree drama, "The Garage" is a regular Arbuckle comedy with a laugh in every scene. If you own a car you'll roar! If you don't, you'll have as much fun as if you did. More enjoyment in this picture than in a two-hour spin in the country.

The other picture on the program is "The Twin Pawns," an adaptation of Wilkie Collins' famous novel, "The Woman in White," with the captivating star, Mae Murray, in the leading role. It is one of those stories that strikes out from the shoulder at the very beginning and holds the spectator to the very end. It opens with the villain who is the real thing in villains, scotting possession of papers disclosing the fact that the woman who dies in a scene.
